Hogarths Old Tom

Crafted in small batches, this Great British Old Tom has a delicate balance of botanicals and sweetness of liquorice

Perfect Serve:

Ice, Fevertree Tonic, Orange Twist

Hoxton

A fresh and fruity gin with an impressive array of ethically-sourced ingredients. Coconut, grapefruit, juniper, iris, tarragon and Ginger are macerated for 5 days before a single distillation in 150 year old copper pot stills to obtain the perfect concentration for blending with grain spirit. Hoxton Gin is then filtered and rested in steel tanks for two months, a longer than usual process which helps integrate the myriad flavours.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with Thomas Henry Pink grapefruit lemonade or Fever Tree Tonic and a pink grapefruit twist.

Ish Red

Juniper, coriander seed and angelica root blended with almond, orris root, nutmeg, cinnamon, cassia, liquorice, lemon peel and orange peel. The botanicals are macerated for 24 hours before the distillation begins encouraging the expression of each botanical.

Perfect Serve: Ice, pink grapefruit, juniper berries & 1724 Tonic.

Jinzu

Jinzu Gin brings English and Japanese traditions together to create an exciting, intriguing spirit. It's made with a blend of English gin (featuring juniper, coriander, angelica, yuzu and Japanese cherry blossom as botanicals) and sake, which brings a luxurious, creamy mouth feel and a subtle, compelling sweetness to its flavour profile.

Perfect Serve: 1724 Tonic, over ice with a green apple Wedge.

King of Soho

King of Soho is made in the heart of London by Howard Raymond, son of Paul Raymond, the property tycoon who helped revolutionise Soho and make it the wonderful centre for culture it is today. The gin is made with 12 botanicals that give it a full-bodied and fresh flavour profile.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with Schweppes tonic, an orange twist and a lime wedge.

London No1

Beautiful quadruple-distilled gin made by Charles Maxwell in London. It is flavoured with botanicals including cinnamon, angelica, bergamot and gardenia and has a slight blue tint.

Perfect Serve: two or three slices of strawberry and a lime twist, over ice with Fever Tree Tonic.

Masons

A London Dry Gin from God's Own County! Masons use Harrogate spring water for their gins along with juniper, and a combination of secret botanicals including citrus. Produced in small batches, each bottle has hand written batch and bottle numbers.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with a lemon twist and tonic of choice.

Martin Millers Reformed

Smooth and delicate, with long lasting citrus notes that are neither too bitter nor sweet, coupled with Juniper notes punching through whilst not overpowering, climaxing in a soft, clean finish. One of the most awarded gins in the world, distilled in England.

Perfect Serves: Over ice with Schweppes Tonic and an orange and lime twist.

Martin Millers Westbourne Strength

Martin millers Westbourne Strength gin is made the same way as the original gin but at 45.2% this means the Juniper will dominate but still gives a soft finish.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with Fever Tree Tonic and three halves of strawberries with a little bit of cracked black pepper.

Mombasa

Mombasa Club London Dry Gin takes its name from a private social club founded in 1885, whom imported gin from England to the island of Zanzibar for their members to enjoy. Mombasa Club London Dry Gin is made four times distilled and features a botanical selection that includes juniper, cassia bark, angelica root, coriander seed, clove and cumin, resulting in a bold, spicy flavour profile.

Perfect Serve: Lime, lemon peel, juniper berries and fever tree tonic.

Monkey 47

A good third of the ingredients for this special gin come from the Black Forest and are definitely not what you would call typical gin flavourings! In total, 47 handpicked ingredients, prepared in extremely soft spring water from their own Black Forest source, give MONKEY 47 its unrivaled complexity and quality, which is fully brought to bear through masterly distillation and maturing in traditional earthenware containers.

Perfect Serve: Ice, star anise, an orange wheel & fever tree.

Monkey 47 Sloe

This tasty Sloe gin is distilled in single batch production with 3 months maturation taking place. The Sloe berries are wild grown and hand picked from the Black Forest in Germany.

Perfect Serve: Fever-Tree Tonic and lemons and limes, over ice.

Nordes

Nordés Atlantic Galician Gin is a rather intriguing Spanish gin made with an Albariño-grape-based spirit, rather than your more commonly seen grain-based spirit, along with 14 botanicals including lemon peels, hibiscus, liquorice and eucalyptus. The result is a bold, floral flavour profile that would befit summer drinks and cocktails.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with two slices of red or green grapes and 1724 Tonic.

Opihr

Opihr Oriental Spiced Gin has bursts of Citrus balanced with the rich, earthy aromas and a soft spice. Opihr epitomises the exotic intensity of the Orient.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Red Chilli & Fentimans

Plymouth

Since 1793 it has been distilled from a unique blend of 7 botanicals, soft Dartmoor water and pure grain alcohol at the historic Black Friars Distillery - the oldest working distillery in England.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Fever-tree Tonic & lime wedges.

Portobello Road

A classic London Dry that has a very rich texture and a finish of liquorice and nutmeg.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Fever-tree Tonic & a pink grapefruit twist

Puerto De Indias strawberry gin

Combining notes of juniper and strawberry, this is a vibrantly fruit-forward Spanish gin - evidently made by accident after trying to create a strawberry liqueur! Very light and sweet.

Perfect Serve: with Thomas Henry Tonic, over ice with fresh strawberries.

Sipsmith

A particularly dry gin with a zesty, citrus finish. The quintessential expression of a classic, traditional London Dry Gin. Bold, complex and aromatic.

Perfect Serve:Ice, Fever-tree Tonic & lemon.

Sloanes

A lovely little dry gin made by Sloane's in the Netherlands. It is named after the 18th century botanist Sir Hans Sloane, who is said to have discovered many of the plants used to flavour gins today. A hearty handful of those botanicals have gone into Sloane's gin, including iris root, coriander, angelica root, cardamom pods, liquorice root and whole vanilla beans.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with 1724 Tonic, an orange wheel and a slice of Vanilla.

Tanqueray

Tanqueray London Dry Gin has exceptional, fresh grapefruit citrus fruit notes as well as subtle juniper and a delicious hint of spice, along with a touch of dryness on the palate.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Fevertree Tonic, Lemon Wedges

Tanqueray 10

One of the top gins in the world, taking its name from the number 10 still in which it's made, the ultra-premium Tanqueray No.10 is distilled with whole fruits for a refined, smooth delivery of delicious botanicals and flavour.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Fevertree Tonic, Pink Grapefruit Slice.

Tanqueray Rangpur

This gin is flavoured with Rangpur limes, also known as a mandarin orange. These highly acidic fruits, actually orange in colour, impart a fresh, zesty zing to this refreshing gin.

Perfect Serve: Ice, Fevertree Tonic, Orange & Lime Twists

The Botanist

An exciting and unusual gin from Islay whisky distillery Bruichladdich, The Botanist is made in a Lomond still christened Ugly Betty and contains no fewer than 31 botanicals, of which 22 are native to the Southern Hebridean island itself. These latter include the likes of Mugwort, Meadow Sweet and the enigmatic Lady's Bedstraw flowers, and the resultant dry gin is described, perhaps unsurprisingly, as 'floral'.

Perfect Serve: Over ice with Fever-Tree Tonic, garnished with a lime twist and a mint sprig.

The Duke

All the way from Munich, Germany, comes The Duke Munich Dry Gin, featuring a selection of botanicals including orange blossom, ginger root, coriander, lemon peel, angelica root, lavender, cubeb and juniper, among others. The name comes from Henry the Lion, the Duke of Bavaria, who founded Munich in 1158.

Perfect Serve: Orange wheel and fever tree tonic.

VL:921724

VL92 is a Dutch gin built upon a malt-wine base and combined with a selection of 14 botanicals, including orange peel, angelica, coriander and juniper. In some ways it's traditional, harking back to the days of Dutch genever, and in other ways it's modern, being a fantastic choice for cocktails (it makes a fine G&T too).

Perfect Serve: With 1724 Tonic, over ice with an orange wheel.

Warner Edwards Rhubarb

Warner Edwards Gin is produced by Tom Warner and Sion Edwards in a barn in the Northamptonshire village of Harrington. The main three botanicals are juniper, coriander and cardamom, which have helped to produce a gin that's so well balanced it can be drunk neat if you so wish.

Perfect Serve: Two pieces of rhubarb over ice, topped with ginger ale.

Warner Edwards Elderflower

Warner Edwards Gin might be rather new, but they've already been winning awards, and what's more, they're already expanding their range with a scrummy Elderflower Gin! The two friends behind Warner Edwards infuse their Harrington Dry Gin with freshly harvested elderflower grown in Northamptonshire and Rhualt, then they add a little bit of sugar, and there you have it!

Perfect Serve: Over Ice with Thomas Henry Elderflower tonic and a slice of lemon.

Whitley Neill

Whitley Neill is a premium London Dry Gin launched in 2005 by Johnny Neill. It contains two African botanicals, Baobab fruit and Cape Gooseberries, that give the gin an exotic touch to the palate and sets it apart from others.

Perfect Serve:Ice, orange slice & Fever-tree .
